Description

Tucked away in the heart of Aigburth's coveted L17 postcode, this charming apartment on Ullet Road is brought to the market by Atlas Estate Agents. Occupying the third floor of an attractive period building, this beautifully presented home is brimming with character features, from its elegant sash windows to its inviting, light-filled interiors.

Set over two floors, the accommodation has been thoughtfully designed to blend style with functionality. The open-plan kitchen and living area creates a welcoming social hub, with a contemporary fitted kitchen seamlessly integrated into the space. A striking mezzanine level, currently used as an office, offers a versatile retreat – perfect for working from home or as an additional relaxation area.

The spacious double bedroom boasts a Juliette balcony, allowing you to enjoy the fresh air and leafy surroundings, while the well-appointed bathroom provides a sleek and comfortable finish. Outside, an allocated parking space adds everyday convenience.

Perfectly positioned within walking distance of the green expanses of Sefton Park and Princes Park, as well as the wealth of local amenities, cafes, and transport links that make L17 so desirable, this apartment offers the best of city living with a touch of tranquillity. Whether you're seeking your first home, a stylish pied-à-terre, or a sound investment, this unique property is not to be missed.
