Description

Brought to the market by Atlas Estate Agents, this impressively well-presented three-bedroom semi-detached home is located on Beechwood Avenue in Halewood, L26. Offering spacious accommodation arranged over two floors, the property is ideal for modern family living.

Set back from the road, the home benefits from a driveway providing parking for up to three cars, along with attractive front and rear gardens. You are welcomed into the property via a useful porch, ideal for storage, leading into a bright and modern entrance hallway.

The reception room is generously proportioned, stylishly presented and enjoys views to both the front and rear, with direct access to the garden. To the rear, the dining area flows seamlessly into a practical utility space and a contemporary downstairs shower room, adding excellent convenience for day-to-day living. The stunning modern kitchen offers a sleek finish, beautiful views and side access to the property.

To the first floor, a spacious and light-filled landing leads to, two double bedrooms, one single bedroom and a beautifully presented family bathroom.

Externally, the property truly excels, boasting a substantial wraparound garden extending to the side and rear. Featuring both patio and artificial lawn, it also includes a private rear seating area and gated access. A detached garage further enhances the appeal of this fantastic home.
