- Leasehold Information: Purchasing this leasehold property includes a share of the freehold via a company or committee structure. This grants a stake in the freehold and a say in management decisions, offering greater control and benefits beyond standard leasehold ownership.

The property is leasehold with no ground rent payable and no known mechanism for increases. The leaseholder owns a share of the freehold.

The service charge for 2025 has increased from £110 to £132 pcm due to rising insurance and maintenance costs, with no major further increases planned. Next year's budget will be finalised in ten months.

Communal redecoration (one block every six months), intercom upgrades, and scheduled tree maintenance.

Lease terms require director approval for pets, though this is not enforced. There are no known restrictions on sub-letting.
