Description

Brought to the market by Atlas Estate Agents, this charming semi-detached house on Aigburth Hall Avenue, L19, beautifully combines 1930s character with contemporary comforts.

Arranged over two floors, the accommodation offers a spacious front lounge, graced with a large bay window and a welcoming gas fire, alongside a cosy second sitting room complete with a log burner—perfect for relaxed evenings or entertaining guests. The home’s original character is celebrated throughout, with feature fireplaces and stunning stained-glass windows complementing modern touches such as composite doors and efficient heating.

The well-appointed kitchen is a true highlight, fitted with a premium freestanding Smeg range cooker, integrated Bosch and AEG appliances, and clever built-in waste management, offering both style and practicality. A downstairs cloakroom/WC and a dedicated porch with meter storage add further convenience.

Upstairs, the property boasts two generous double bedrooms, each with alcove storage, alongside a comfortable third single bedroom, all served by a family bathroom.

Outside, the mature rear garden is a private sanctuary, featuring a spectacular blossom tree, an array of shrubs, and a patio area perfect for alfresco dining and entertaining. A dedicated driveway provides parking for two vehicles.

Positioned just a stone’s throw from Liverpool Golf Club, and within easy reach of Calderstones Park and Allerton Golf Club, the location also benefits from excellent bus and rail connections. Families will appreciate the property’s placement within the catchment for highly regarded infant, junior, and senior schools.

This distinctive home offers a rare combination of period charm, modern convenience, and a delightful setting with views of one of Liverpool’s oldest cottages—truly a property not to be missed.
