Description

Brought to the market by Atlas Estate Agents, this modern mid-terraced home on Hollybank Road, L18, is offered with no onward chain and presents a fantastic opportunity for first-time buyers or growing families. Arranged over two floors, the property blends contemporary living with traditional charm.

A welcoming entry space leads into a bright and lengthy hallway, giving access to two reception rooms. The front living room features a cosy log burner and a bay window, filling the space with natural light, while the dining area flows effortlessly from the living room and can also be accessed directly from the hallway, providing flexible living arrangements. To the rear, a spacious modern kitchen overlooks the generous back yard and offers direct access to the outdoor space, ideal for entertaining or relaxing.

Upstairs, a light-filled landing leads to two double bedrooms and a generously sized single, alongside a modern family bathroom. The property also benefits from on-street parking and a newly installed boiler, combining practicality with style. With its excellent presentation, flexible living spaces, and generous outdoor area, this home represents a wonderful opportunity in a desirable location.
