Description

Brought to the market by Atlas Estate Agents, this charming terraced house on Cam Street sits quietly in the heart of Woolton, where village life and period elegance meet.

Arranged over two thoughtfully planned floors, the property is rich in character and heritage, with original quarry tiles underfoot and beautiful period details woven throughout. Two inviting reception rooms provide versatile living and entertaining spaces, with the front reception room enhanced by an original fire surround that echoes the home's historic charm.

A spacious open-plan kitchen diner forms the natural heart of the house — a welcoming space for everyday living and relaxed gatherings alike. Practical yet sympathetic updates include brand new double-glazed sash windows throughout and a newly installed, energy-efficient boiler, ensuring modern comfort sits comfortably alongside the building's historic fabric.

Upstairs, two well-proportioned bedrooms complete with original fire surrounds are served by a bathroom, while a boarded loft offers valuable additional storage space. Outside, the flagged rear yard features a decking area and garden shed, creating a low-maintenance outdoor retreat with room to unwind or entertain. The property also had a brand new slate roof installed in November 2016.

Perfectly positioned within walking distance of Woolton Village, with its independent shops, cafés and amenities, the property is also ideally placed for local bus routes, making travel further afield effortless. A rare opportunity to acquire a characterful home in one of South Liverpool's most sought-after locations.
