Description

Brought to the market by Atlas Estate Agents, this impressive detached home occupies a sought-after position on the private Gardenia Grove in Aigburth, L17, offering an enviable combination of generous space, comfort and timeless appeal.

Arranged over two floors, the property provides spacious and versatile accommodation, with three inviting reception spaces comprising a generous lounge, dining room and dedicated home office. The country-style fitted kitchen is complemented by a separate utility room and a convenient ground floor WC, creating a practical and well-equipped home for modern family living.

Upstairs, the principal bedroom enjoys the added luxury of a private en-suite, complete with both a shower and corner bath. Three further well-appointed bedrooms are served by a family bathroom featuring a bath with overhead shower.

Externally, the property occupies a particularly generous plot, with stunning gardens extending to the front, both sides and rear — a rare feature that sets this home apart. A large patio area provides an excellent setting for outdoor entertaining and relaxation, while the double garage with electric doors offers secure parking and useful additional storage. A burglar alarm provides further peace of mind.

The location is equally appealing, with Liverpool City Centre just three miles away and the promenade approximately 500 metres from the property. Sefton Park is also close by, while St Michaels Merseyrail Station is within a short walking distance, providing convenient transport links across the city and beyond.

Set within this desirable private road, this substantial family home represents a rare opportunity to enjoy generous living space, extensive gardens and an enviable location in one of Aigburth's most appealing settings.
