Description

Brought to the market by Atlas Estate Agents, this impressive detached family home on Ewden Close, Childwall, L16, enjoys a peaceful and highly sought-after cul-de-sac setting, while remaining just a five-minute walk from the vibrant Childwall Triangle.

Thoughtfully extended across both floors, the property provides approximately 52 m² (560 sq ft) of additional living space and offers spacious, versatile accommodation throughout. Unfurnished and arranged over two floors, the home features two generous reception rooms, a modern fitted kitchen with separate utility room, four well-proportioned double bedrooms and two bathrooms.

The bright and airy conservatory is a particular highlight, with large French doors opening onto the good-sized, private rear garden, creating a wonderfully flexible space for relaxing or entertaining. The exceptionally spacious master bedroom benefits from its own en-suite, while a further reception room provides an ideal home office, playroom or additional family space.

Externally, an open front garden complements the property, while the private rear garden offers a pleasant outdoor retreat. An integral garage and driveway provide ample off-road parking.

Combining substantial accommodation, thoughtful extensions and an enviable location close to excellent amenities and well-regarded local schools, this is a superb family home in a desirable Childwall setting.
