Description

A beautiful Victorian semi detached house benefiting from an abundance of original character features

Situated in Aigburth, a popular and affluent south Liverpool suburb and home to many well-known landmarks including Sefton Park, Sudley House, Otterspool Promenade, Aigburth Cricket Club and Lark Lane. Sefton Park is listed by English Heritage and covers a remarkable 235 acres. Lark Lane is a stones-throw from Sefton Park and is renowned for its bohemian chic atmosphere and features a diverse selection of wine bars, restaurants, coffee shops and independent businesses. Aigburth is also home to outstanding schools and offers excellent road, rail and bus links to Liverpool city centre.

The property briefly comprises of; entrance vestibule, hallway, three reception rooms, kitchen, utility room and a family bathroom. To the first floor are four double bedrooms, a family bathroom and a large storage cupboard (potential for home office). To the second floor are two double bedrooms, a family bathroom and two large storage cupboards. There is also a fully height cellar suitable for conversion. Externally, there is a mature rear garden with a raised decked area and a detached garage which can be accessed from Buckingham Avenue. The garage is accessed via a double roller shutter and can house 3 cars. It benefits from lighting, power and is fully alarmed.

The property also benefits from gas central heating and many original period features.

There is an opportunity for a change of use subject to planning permission.
